NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

READER, BEAR WELL IN MIND THIS CIRCUMSTANCE: that the acknowledged purity of Lanman's Cod Liver Oil places it beyond all competition in the world. This is a matter of paramount importance for the suffering. As a means of curing cold, cough and other chronic lung affections, allaying inflamation and preventing the subsequent derangement of the liver, relieving the bronchial tubes, and restoring the emaciated form to its wonted flesh and freshness, this medicine is unsurpassed by any other known in the medical profession. The just reputation accorded to Cod Liver Oil, as the foremost among modern discoveries, for its unfailing qualities would have been successfully assailed and brought into disrepute by the flood of worthless imitations brought forward by the needy and unprincipled dealers in the spurious article which they impudently palm off on the unwary as genuine, bearing the foregoing in mind, when in quest of Cod Liver Oil, any person can be assured of obtaining the genuine article from any respectable druggist provided that they call for Lanman and Kemp's Cod Liver Oil, and take one other. Lisbon 24th June.

On the afternoon of the 22nd. it was announced that telegraphic communication was established with Brazil, the cable working satisfactory; this caused much rejoicing in the city, as it is expected to serve trade notably.

The Bank of England has lowered its rate to 2½ per cent. and for the first time the Bank of Portugal has come down to 4½.

The final struggle between the Carlists and Republicans is to come off in a few days near Estella. Don Carlos has 28,000 men strongly posted, mostly armed with Remington rifles, besides 15 battalions of reserve. Gen. Concha advancing with 37,000 men and 80 pieces of artillery, his present head-quarters being at Lodosa. Count Hatzfeld accompanies him, it being the desire of the German Government not so much to propose a King for Spain as to ascertain the relative strength of Serrano's Government so as to judge whether it can be recognized.

Mr Bourke sub-secretary for Foreign Affairs, in answer to a question on the night of the 22nd. in the House of Commons, said the British Government did not think the moment has yet arrived for recoguizing the Republic in Spain, although every sympathy was due to Serrano's Government for struggling to repress Communism on the one hand and Bourbon reaction on the other, in defending constitutional liberty.

When Rochefort and another Communist landed at Cork from the Partbia the crowd around his hotel was so menacing that the police were called out, and he proceeded by evening train to Dublin, where he was also hissed, except at Trinity College, one of the Fellows shewing him the Library and College. He was everywhere accompanied by a lady, but for whom his life would have been in danger.

Paris papers say that the French Government demanded the surrender of Rochefort, and that the British Government consulted Her Majesty's law-advisers, who recommended his arrest. He is believed to have probably escaped to Holland.

On the 21st, the Pope's 28th anniversary, His Holiness appeared at one of the windows of the Vatican, when a crowd below cried out "Viva il Papa Rey!" The Italian troops dispersed the crowd, making several arrests. It is believed Tristany has arrived in Rome, as envoy from Don Carlos to the Pope.

The Bonapartist circular of Nievres proves a forgery. MacMahon has advised his Ministry to abstain from any interference in the formal proclamation of a French Republic, to come off next week. The bill prolonging MacMahon's right two years longer for appointment of Mayors was passed by 358 votes against 327. Jules Janin is dead. The Duchess of Madrid has not arrived in Paris.

Dr. Dollinger has separated from the Alto-Catholic or Dutch Catholic sect, and is about to publish his recantation, which he has drawn up at great length; but his friends are trying to prevent its publication. The Catholic prelates assembled at Mayence published a strong protest against the persecution by Bismarck; the German papers say this will increase the rigors against the Church.

The Duc de Larochefoucauld proposed in the Assembly to restore a French Monarchy, but his bill was rejected. The proposal to declare a Republic was passed in a preliminary vote by a majority of only five. The scene which occurred in the Assembly between Gambetta and his opponents was dreadful: the latter told Gambetta that fifteen of his supporters were escaped convicts who had got into the Chamber. The President could hardly keep them from boxing. When Gambetta reached the railway station he was struck by Comte de St. Croix, who has been condemned to 6 months' imprisonment and 6000 francs fine.

The Quarantine Congress opens at Vienna on the 1st July.

The Italian Chambers threw out Menabrea's bill for fortifications.

King Oscar vetoed the bill passed by the Swedish Chambers about Ministers taking part in the debates.

The Times of the 19th June contains the following:

"M. Henri Rochefort remained in Dublin until last evening, and did not reach London, as it had been expected he would do. On his arrival at Cork the crowd which assembled in front of the Queen's Hotel was very demonstrative, and all manner of cries greeted him as he issued from the hotel. He had, however, taken the wise precaution, as it seemed, of providing himself with a lady for his protection, for, though the crowd was rather demonstrative, no attempt at personal violence was resorted to. The police, fearing a riot, made hasty preparations to meet an emergency, and attended at the station in stronger force than usual. On reaching the train Rochefort, who was accompanied by M. Ollivier Pain, a Communist who escaped with him from New Caledonia, at once took his seat in a first class carriage. The door of the station was partially crowded, but a goodly crowd got on the platform and indulged in various cries of disapprobation, Rochefort viewing the demonstration from his seat with apparent indifference, and, although a dark scowl occasionally settled on his features, he treated the affair, on the whole, with good humor. Rochefort visited Trinity College yesterday morning, and was taken over the building and through the library by one of the fellows. There were no others in attendance except a few students who recognised him, but there was no demonstration Great pains were taken to keep his movements private. He went about in a cab, accompanied by a lady. He left Dublin last night by the mail train for London, whence, it is understood, he will proceed to Rotterdam. He did not show much in public, only taking some drives in the suburbs. He was accompanied by M. Ollivier Pain. In the morning, at some of the stations near Dublin, he was hissed. No notice was taken of him in the city.

The reason which induced Rochefort to land at Queenstown was that he had suffered extremely from sea-sickness during the voyage, and wished to leave the ship at the earliest opportunity. M. Pain, who had a sprained ankle, accompanied M. Rochefort, as it was their intention to reach London as soon as possible.

It having been reported that Rochefort left Dublin yesterday morning and would arrive last night at Euston station by the 6.45 train, between 15 and 20 Frenchmen, respectably attired, assembled on the arrival platform to receive him, but to their apparent surprise and disappointment they were informed by the guard that Rochefort had left the train at Chester and had either gone on to Liverpool or had continued his journey to London by the Great Western line. This was all the information that could be obtained regarding his movements, and the party of Frenchmen subsequently proceeded to Paddington, in the hope of meeting him there, but in that they were also disappointed.

Madrid telegrams of June 22nd say that Castelar had a conference with the Government, to effect a reconciliation between Radicals and Republicans.

Rothschild offers Serrano money to put down the Carlists.

A Sunday London paper of the 21st says—

An application has been lodged with the Attorney-General, on behalf of the Claimant to the Tichborne estates, for a writ of error with a view to a new trial.

The members of the Home Rule party in the House of Commons propose to meet for the purpose of agreeing upon the form of resolution to be moved on the 30th inst, by Mr. Butt with reference to the Parliamentary relations between Great Britain and Ireland.

The Bombay Gazette reports the fall of a wall at Kandahar, by which four hundred people were killed and a hundred houses destroyed.

From Rome we learn that the Minister of War had decided that military manœuvres on a large scale shall take place in the Marengo district in September. More than 60,000 men will take part in them. The King will be present,

The Duke de la Rochefoucauld has returned to the French Embassy at Albert-gate. His Excellency will only hold office until the appointment of his successor.

A marriage has, it is said, been arranged between Earl Grovesnor, eldest son of the Duke of Westminster, and Lady Sibell Lumley, fourth daughter of the Earl of Scarborough.

A telegram from Calcutta states that the imports of grain have allayed the Juppingoree panic. One hundred and twenty-three of the rioters are under trial; several have been sentenced to from two to five years' imprisonment. Forty deaths are reported from cholera in Durbunga. After the rainfall, the people were leaving the roads to resume cultivation. The native capitalists are beginning to help the peasantry with advances. The harvest reports to Saturday last are favourable everywhere. Assam accounts are better, and there is sunshine after the wettest spring since 1861. In Darjeeling and Cachar prospects are most favourable.

A party of Moorish insurgents having committed depredations on French territory were attacked by a French detachment. Their chief was wounded, and had thirty-seven of his followers killed. The rest were put to flight. The French had six killed and ten wounded. The successful result of this engagement is considered important, as rendering the Sahara district secure from further Moorish raids.

A kind of malignant typhus has appeared in the neighbourhood of Bengazi, and fifteen days' quarantine has been imposed upon arrivals at Malta from the Regency of Tripoli, and cattle from the Regency of Tunis are not allowed to be landed unless it be certified by the Consul that there is no cattle disease at the port of embarkation.

The Minister of Public Works has appointed a special Commission, composed of engineers, to examine the results of the inquiry made into the scheme for constructing a submarine tunnel between France and England.

The Senate of Washington has confirmed the appointment of Mr. Bancroft as Plenipotentiary at Berlin.

The Patrie, alluding to the rumor of Victor Emmanuel's abdication, says that in a few days the document will be published, transferring the crown to the head of Prince Humbert.

German papers contradict the rumor that Bismarck means to annex the Philippine Islands as a colony of the new Empire, adding that the Danes offered to sell St. Thomas and Bismarck refused it.

MONTEVIDEAN LETTER.

July 14th.

A calmness reigned over the whole city to-day and the transactions both in produce and in all commercial pursuits; this may be attributed to it being generally known that some houses have received telegrams to the 10th inst., which have been kept so secret that the ignorant are rather chary of going into business.

The sales on the Bolsa were on a small scale and amounted to the following—

Deuda Interna, 2nd Series.
10,000 at 60¼ for end month
40,000 at 61 do do
10,000 at 61½ do, with option of 10,000 more.
10,000 at 61⅜ for end of August

In Exchange some few transactions have taken place; the rates, however continue about the same. I heard of £3000 being done to-day at 50⅞ per National Dollar, and also some at 50¾.

The steamer Rio Uruguay arrived this morning from yours and the Uruguayan ports and brought down 130 passengers, besides the following specie—

A. Montado	1374	54
Jorge Ibarra	589	41
A Folte & Co.	504	14
J. Satori & Trello	300	00
Maua & Co.	15100	00
	17868	09

The American lugger Nancy Smith arrived this morning from New York with a general cargo, among which are fourteen tramway cars, that are intended for the new tramway line running along the Calle de las Piedras; these consist of a one-horse car, two for two horses, and eleven for four. Tramway accidents are still daily occurrences; yesterday a woman was run over and killed instantaneously, and also a child was run over on the Union Tramway line, by which his leg was completely smashed. The Tramway Central now run their line down to the bottom of the Calle Colon, facing the iron mole, which is very convenient for those who live out by the Union and have business near the Custom House.

The steamer Doña Francisca, belonging to Messrs. Barreto and Watson, and chartered by Conceicao and Co. to take up coals to Paraguay, made a very satisfactory trial trip to-day, after having undergone a thorough repair under the superintendence of Mr. William Harley.

In addition to the suicide of Pope yesterday, an attempted one was made by an officer belonging to an Italian gunboat, at present lying here, that in all probability will prove fatal. The cause assigned for this is that he had been ordered under arrest for eight days, to which he preferred Kingdomcome.

A Brazilian captain has arrived here from Rio de Janeiro to go up to replace the brave commander who ordered the town of Alvear to be bombarded. It is said that the latter is ordered to Rio to be court martialled!

The Ristori gave Marie Antoinette last night at the Teatro Cibils. The place was crowded, and amongst the spectators I noticed a great many English. The acting was so affecting that in the Cazuela several of the ladies were obliged to dry their eyes.

To-night they give Un Ballo in Maschera at Solis by Mdlle. Urban, Castelmary and Celada: the contralto, Mdlle. Sanz, is still ill, and I am afraid we will not have the pleasure of hearing her sing during this temporada.

The s.s. Britannia is just in sight, and if she brings any news you may be sure that "Stand by" will do his duty.

Last night the Chambers began discussing the Loan. The House was crowded to suffocation, but the result after talking till 10 p.m. is not yet known. We shall not be able to form a judgment on the subject till three or four days, as the Padres de la Patria will naturally take time to discuss such an important subject. The Sesiones Extraordinarias close to-morrow, 15th inst, but as this Loan question has yet to be decided, the Government will be under the necessity of continuing the sittings.

The Comision de Obras Publicas have asked the Government to knock down the Mercado Viejo, which is in a wretched state of preservation, but the opponents of the demolition answer that as the edifice is mortgaged it cannot be rased; in the meanwhile passers-by may at any moment have a shower of stones on their heads, which will not tend to improve them.

Discounts have been done to-day at 11 per cent per annum, and money is still attainable at this rate for good signatures.

Man-stealing from on board ship is getting rather frequent, and to-day I heard several ship-captains complaining about the great number of crimps there are here. It appears that in spite of watchmen or guards these fellows are so sly that they generally manage to entice the seamen away from their vessels under promises of better treatment and more wages. It is to be hoped that our worthy Captain of the Port, whose zeal is well known, will put a stop to this nefarious trade, which is assuming alarming proportions.

The proprietors round about Florida have protested through their Junta against the station of the Ferro-Carril Central being at such a distance from the town. It is 'only' half a league from the town—a nice little walk for a tired passenger.

To-morrow there will be a concert at the Casino under the direction of Sr. Bonetti. A good many families are going, which will of course give more eclat to the entertainment.

ROSARIO.

July 10th.

The winter up to the present time has been cold and dry. The month of June had a longer succession of frosty nights than I remember having experienced during my residence in this country, and July is following suit. Rain is badly wanted, but rain will be of no service if the frosts continue. A few days ago we had a good shower which did not, however, extend more than a few leagues beyond the river. The farmers of Cordoba are disconsolate. As the lands in that province are lighter and drier than those of Santa Fe, rain is absolutely necessary before wheat can be sown. Thus while the greater part of the wheat sowing is finished in this province, in Cordoba it has not yet commenced. A drought of a few weeks more will destroy all hopes of a wheat crop in that province this year. On the other hand the continuation of severe frosts cannot but exercise a beneficial effect on the rich soils of the province of Santa Fe.

The state of the pastures is inspiring the serious apprehensions of estancieros many of whom are already taking measures to move their haciendas. The camps north of Cañada de Gomez are still in good condition, and the English settlers there are making money with their cattle. About a hundred and fifty square leagues of this camp is in the hands of Buenos Ayrean capitalists and already contains a large number of horned cattle.

All these lands, running north as far as the Carcarañia river and including the railway lands between the Carcarañia and Tortugas, on the frontier of Cordoba, make up the large department of San Geronimo, of which is capital the little town of Coronda, on the Parana. As the railway runs through the southern half of the department the Government has determined on the excellent measure of erecting into a separate department this section, making the flourishing little railway town of Cañada de Gomez its capital. This is a measure of great importance to the estancieros, English and native, of that region, as well as to the flourishing railway colony at the Cañada, where there are already upwards of a hundred good families, and where are situated the large farming establishments of Mr. Krell and the Messrs. Hope, and the valuable nursery of Mr. Hieland.

Independence Day, or the 9th July, passed off quietly enough. It was signalized this year by the ceremony of laying the foundation stone of an orphan asylum, the godfathers of which, to use the phrase of the country, were the Governor, Mr. Bayo, and Mrs. Avellaneda, wife of the future President. The first was represented by the Gefe Politico, Colonel Rodriguez, and the second by Mrs. Ledesma. Notwithstanding the cold, a large concourse of people were present, and the ceremony was enlivened by music and any quantity of bunting. At night there were very creditable fireworks in the principal plaza, but the cold chilled all enthusiasm. It is a great pity that the National day should fall in the middle of winter. That of Chile is in the glorious epoch of the year when Nature is buttoning on her green mantle, and arranging her chaplet of flowers.

One of the most wonderful escapes from almost inevitable death, that perhaps ever was chronicled, occurred on the Central Argentine a few nights ago, and an account of which you will have seen in the Capital, and probably did not believe. It is true however, and what is not the least wonderful part of the story is that both men should have escaped. An elderly man, Kufer by name, and a young man, both Swiss, had been drinking in Roldan until ten o'clock, and then started, both pretty drunk, to go home, taking the centre of the Railway. At the distance of about 3 miles they were met by the down freight train going perhaps at the rate of some seventeen or eighteen miles an hour. The night was quite dark; the men neither saw the engine nor the engine drivers the two horsemen. In fact the catastrophe happened without any of the parties being for the time cognisant. The two horses were killed instantaneously; the younger man was thrown outside the rails unhurt, and continued his drunken sleep; the elder, Kufer was thrown on the front platform of the engine, and received some slight and insignificant contusions which did not prevent him from continuing his nap until the train reached Roldan. They say that the engine drivers saw an inexplicable bulto on the platform, and were pretty well frightened. At all events it was only on arriving at the station that the old man was shaken out of his peaceful slumbers.

Only one of the murderers of the brothers Adriani has been taken. This was another of the atrocious cold-blooded murders that we are called to relate at least once a week. Another has just been committed in the colony of Helvecia. The Argentine Constitution wants re-modelling in some form.

The traffic of the Central Argentine is increasing in a very satisfactory manner, both in passengers and in goods. Cordoba appears to be awakening up at last to her proper interests. Ever since the opening of the line the Cordoveses have occupied themselves so heartily in abusing the Railway, clamoring for unattainably low freights and urging the expropriation of the line, as if the National Government could do more than a private company, that they have had no time to think of taking advantage of the Railway in a business way; but are now finding out that after all the Line is not ruinsing them, and that really even after paying the horrid freight, some profit is left.—'So mote it be.'

Yours truly,
W. P.

THE MAGAZINES.

JUNE.

London Society has a "portrait charmant" frontispiece—Lady Greensleeves—who would look a beautiful coquette no matter what coloured sleeves she dons. "Open Sesame" is being worked up very well. The heroine and her cousin, Lord Valence, have met at last, and judging from their first interview we see pretty plainly what the end is likely to be. "Remarkable Trials" is an interesting historical reminiscence. "Weaknesses of London Society" is a well drawn and amusing caricature. "The Queen's Token" is well worth continuing, and the end leaves the reader anxious to get the next number as soon as possible. "Given Unsought" is a little love story of the period, well enough put together. "The Recollections of an Old Habitue" are very interesting in this number, and "Social Subjects" mainly deals with Spiritualism and Painting, and in a very able way.

The Young Ladies' Journal for July (the very latest in the Plate) has a mass of patterns and extra coloured supplements that will keep its fair and fashionable readers well employed till the next number comes out. "For Life—for Love" is a thrilling story, and amongst the new music the "Snow Storm Galop" is well worthy of their attention.

Bow Bells also devotes a beautifully coloured supplement to the Ladies. 'The Gipsy Bride,' a sensational tale, commences in this number and promises well. The articles and pictures in connection with the Fine Arts, are good, notably 'The last of the May-Flower,' a Pilgrim Father scene, and Byron's 'Zulcika.' There are several pieces of new music, and numerous Fashion plates. The story 'Who will save Her?' is ably carried on. A sketch and portrait of Mr. Lesseps, the Suez Canal celebrity, are worth attention.

Once a Week has 'Jack's Sister,' 'In the Dark,' 'Only a Year,' all modern stories of interest to what are called light readers. The 'Table Talk' is as readable as usual.

We must not forget to recommend to any pigeon-fanciers amongst our subscribers The Illustrated Book of Pigeons, beautifully got up, and replete with useful information as to the rearing of these birds.

The Art Journal for June has some exquisite engravings, amongst them 'A Russian Peasant's Home,' 'Graziella,' 'Hereward the Wake' and the 'Marriage of Saint Catherine,' from Paul Veronese's celebrated picture. The reading matter can not be done justice to in such a limited space as we command; suffice it to say that every subject connected with the Art of the day is handled in the most able and classical manner. This journal should be in every refined household.

We have also received from Mr. Daws All the Year Round, Family Herald, Godey's Lady's Book, Atlantic Monthly and other magazines, but have not had time even to wink at them.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The European mails by the Pacific steamer Britannia came up in the Silex yesterday, and were delivered early. Our papers are from Lisbon to 24th and London 21st ult. The news is not of any great importance, and no details yet of the Republican defeat at Estella by Don Carlos. Two unexpected pieces of intelligence are, the secession of Dr. Dollinger from what is styled the Old Catholic party in Germany, and the arrival of the Communist Rochefort in England. He first landed at Queenstown, in Ireland, and had to hide away from the indignation of the people, although no violence was offered him. In Dublin he had a similar reception, being hissed at the railway stations. The very latest French papers say that the French Government had demanded his extradition, and the British law officers had advised Her Majesty to comply; also that Rochefort, in face of this, had escaped to Holland. The Britannia has made a magnificent run out from Lisbon—21 days.

The meeting of the Saint Patrick's Society to petition Government on the subject of the murder mania now devastating the camps will be held to-day at the reading rooms, Standard Court, at 1 o'clock sharp, and all members are earnestly requested to attend.

Our histrionic friends the Thespians will have a rehearsal to-night of the performance they intend to give next month. We hear it will be A 1.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from Councillor Lopez Netto, the greatest Brazilian traveller living. Councillor Netto has seen the earth from the North Cape to Thebes, from the Magellan Straits to the cataracts of the Nile, and every inch of Europe from Dublin to St. Petersburgh. Some years ago he went on a tour of inspection of the Prisons of Europe, by order of the Emperor; he says he found the English system admirable, the Irish however being by far the best in the United Kingdom. We feel great pleasure in saluting this distinguished Brazilian, who will leave for the Uruguay in a few days.

The R. M. S. Boyne left yesterday with a heavy mail (largely made up of STANDARDS) a trifle of specie, and miserably few passengers. There was not a tear shed on the mole.

Our London Letter by Britannia stands over till to-morrow. Nothing as yet about the Rosario Railway.

The Municipality is still as brisk as a bee, although it cannot command a four-penny bit to pay its enormous debts. Two more new projects were 'lancés' yesterday, one to start a Boletin Municipal, and the other to compel bakers to mark the weight on each loaf, also providing heavy fines for adulteration. This is a good measure. We earnestly recommend the milkmen to the kind attention of the Corporation.

It is estimated that since the peace of 1783 until last year 1873, there have been 8,779,174 individuals of different parts of the world who have emigrated to the United States. Among the many Statisticians who have sought to determine the amount of money brought by that emigration. John Kunedy, formerly superintendant at Castle Garden, reckoned that each emigrant had brought, at an average, the sum of 68 dollars. Well if we put the sum only to $50 each we find that the emigration in the States must have brought to that country more than 400 millions of dollars. That sum is nothing when compared with the amount of work produced by this great number of emigrants in the land of their adoption.

Captain J A Powlett, who came out as first officer of one of the new ironclads, received his commission as captain yesterday from the National Government, and was sent on board the Uruguay to direct the Naval School.

Things in Villa Occidental are reported at a regular stand-still. Public and private building and all projected improvements stopped. The cause of this is the doubt as to who the place will be given to by the arbitrators who are to decide the limits question between this country and Paraguay.

Mr. Daws, the great magazine man, delivered yesterday all the London Weeklies of 13th and 20th June, and Sunday papers to 21st. The Illustrated News of above dates are splendid. The large pictures of 'The Decisive Charge of the Life Guards at Waterloo' and 'A Rear-Guard (French) protecting a Convoy' are alone worth buying both numbers to possess.

Four of the crew of the French ship Caldera got paralysis and all the others were dreadfully ill from drinking distilled sea water on the voyage from Havre to this port. On arrival here the men were sent to Hospital and the distilling apparatus examined, when it was found that its most important parts were made of copper and lead, which had poisoned the poor fellows. It is feared the paralytics will never recover. This ought to be a caution to ship owners and captains.

Rumours of revolution still abound, and although none but old women believe them they do much injury. The Prensa says that Mr. Ceballos, to whom the famous 3000 flint muskets were consigned, is under the strictest surveillance of the police.

The next best thing to advertizing in the STANDARD is advertizing at the Western Railway stations through Messrs. Dennehy and Miroli, on the mirror system. This is a secret of Dennehy's, into which he has only partly let us; but we know enough to affirm that every man, woman and child that enters a Western Railway station will be forced by one of the first laws of Nature to read the advertizements whether they like it or not. This beats Holloway and Bagley hollow. Denneby forces us to swallow his advertizements, but we defy all the Holloways and Bagleys under the sun to make us swallow a pill or a mouthful of Hesperidina.

The Rural Society's Cattle and Flower Show in October will be held in Calle Florida, on a space of ground between Cordoba and Paraguay. This is far better than at the Recoleta, as at first proposed.

A young gentleman in the last stage of noisy "tightness" sat down on the tram line Calle Bolivar, corner of Belgrano, the other night, and announced his intention of stripping himself naked. He was caught just as he reached the 'shirt and trousers' stage and persuaded to forego the treat he had intended for the public.

We advise our distinguished colleague La Libertad that we have not had the pleasure of an exchange for some time past.

Mr. Oldendorff, Chief of the Agricultural Department, gave a grand dinner a few days ago to all his employés and the Commissioners for the Philadelphia Exhibition. The feed was of the most recherche description.

We can find nothing particularly particular in the Mount papers to hand yesterday. Pope, the Englishman who shot himself through the heart in the Matrix, on Monday, was an estanciero in Florida department. Portraits of his two children were found on the corpse.

A lunch for 200 covers at the Colon Theatre will be the chief incident in the reception of H.R.H. the Duke of Genoa by his countrymen in this city.

Messrs. Jacobsen and Soderstedt, the well-known librarians, sent us yesterday London papers to the 21st, including the Times, Weekly Times, Punch, Graphic, &c., for which we are much obliged.

News from the Interior and Upper Provinces were received yesterday. In Jujuy Dr. Arce has been appointed Criminal Judge. In Salta nothing but electioneering in the papers. In Tucuman sundry arrests on suspicion of revolutionary intentions, and an appalling double murder—a woman having murdered a man and burned her own child alive. Nothing worth recording from Santiago. New Ministry in Rioja. In San Juan Canon Lopez dead, also the Imparcial. Nothing from Mendoza or San Luis.

The fleet of the Cunard Mail Company, is, according to its last report, exactly twice the size in ships and men of the German Imperial navy.

Yesterday we received from our London correspondent the first sample proof of our new Handbook of the River Plate Republics, which is being printed by one of the first houses in London, Messrs. Clowes & Son, and will be ready before Christmas. The type, form &c. closely resemble the Statesman's Year-book. The extra pages of Advertisements will be forwarded for the appendix by steamer leaving here on the 30th, and after next week no more can be received.

Mr. Blest Gana, whose family has just arrived from Europe per Boyne, has taken the house recently the Brazilian Legation, in Calle San Martin near the Retiro, where the Chilian flag of the Lone Star will soon be unfurled.

In Cordoba on the Ninth part of the firework display was the bombardment of a fort by a ship which the people at once christened the Parana. Of course the Parana battered the fort into little bits. Snow has fallen in the city of Cordoba and the sierras are as white as a fresh egg; everyone in Cordoba shivering. Emigrants are arriving fast and obtain ready employment.

ON 'CHANGE.

July 15, 1874.

Ounces	400
Sovs	122½
Pats	25
Nat. Bonds	74
Cedulas	80¼

The Cedula market ruled excited to-day owing to the semi-monthly liquidation, which many persons thought would give great results, but only 60,000 Cedulas were taken away; over 100,000 were re-old, which of course spoilt the market. Nevertheless this is the first day for many months that the liquidation closed favorably for the bulls, and there was a slight profit in their favor almost in every transaction. Had the 100,000 Cedulas which were re-sold been taken up, we might have seen prices much higher at the close. The official liquidation for the day was marked down at 175,000 Cedulas but the real liquidation was fully double this amount.

The exchange market closed to-day without any much change, something was done at 48⅞ this morning; the amount drawn by the Prov. Bank is about £60,000 nothing over. The Boyne spite of everything took gold not to say much, still quite enough to show how the wind blows. £60,000, and we heard on 'Change this afternoon that at Montevideo she will take a much larger sum.

Amongst the passengers left in Boyne to-day, were Mr. George MacKern, of the firm of MacKern Bros.; Miss Shoebridge, Mr. Tolkein, Rev. Father Devine, Mr. Drew, Mr. Jones, Mr. Saunders and Capt M Connachi.

It seems the Provincial Government is now in daily expectation of a telegram from London announcing the launching of the Huergo Western Railway loan.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Old Gas Company is called for Saturday night, it is to be hoped the shareholders will attend.

In the liquidation stock ruled weak, sellers for end of month offering at 80.

National Bonds nothing done to-day—buyers offer 73, sellers ask 74½.

Some shares of old Gas Company offered; price asked, 800 m/c.

The shares of the new Steamboat Port Service Company are one thousand pats. each, and not 100, as stated.

The next steamers for Europe are—the Sud America on 18th, and La France on 19th. Both fast steamers.

French gold was quoted to-day at 1 per cent. premium. The Gironde took 12,000 francs in gold from here, and 300,000 francs from Montevideo.

To-day we received, through the kind attention of Messrs. Lamas and Co., a late telegram from Brazil, which will be found in our regular telegram column.

Messrs. Dennehy and Miroli, having taken the Western Railway on a contract for three years for advertising, are now making sub-contracts with the public, and on very reasonable terms. They hold all the stations etc., and have reduced the matter to a regular business.

The Times of the 19th ult. has the following—

Aconcagua has arrived at Lisbon with £50,000 from Brazils.

The Britannia's mails came up true to time this morning, and the few who got their letters early were enabled to reply to same by the Boyne. It was a busy day in commercial circles; what with one mail in and the other going out, there was a heavy despatch at most of the houses. The import of the market news is, of course, anticipated by the cable; still we heard that some very good account sales have come out, and in fact all River Plate produce now in Europe pays well. The mail has brought out circulars from the leading Manchester house, Davies, Wedemeyer and Co., announcing that Mr. Frederick Neild, who until lately was resident managing partner of their house in Buenos Ayres, Messrs. F. Neild and Co., enters now as partner in the Manchester firm.

The Mail has also brought out the Prospectus of the Buenos Ayres and Campana Railway, an issue of 19,000 shares of £20 each, being the balance of £500,000 forming the share capital of said Company. The following is the Directors' list:—

DIRECTORS.

Captain Henry W. Tyler, R.E., Wyvenhoe Hall, Colchester, London.
William Thompson, Esq. (Messrs. Parlane, Graham and Co., B. Ayres), B. Ayres.

BANKERS.

Messrs. Robarts, Lubbock and Co., 15 Lombard-street, London.
The London and River Plate Bank, B. Ayres.

BROKERS.—Messrs. Laurence, Son, and Pearce, 13 Copthall Court, Throgmorton-street, London, E.C.

CONSULTING ENGINEER.—E. Brainerd Webb, Esq. C.E., F.R.G.S., &c., London.

CHIEF RESIDENT ENGINEER AND GENERAL MANAGER.—M. N. B. Mortimer, Esq., C.E., B. Ayres.

SECRETARY.—S. J. Smithers, Esq. Offices—47A, Moorgate-street, London, E.C.

The prospectus is very long, we however extract the following as the most interesting mem.:

"A contract has been entered into with Messrs. Edwin Clark, Punchard and Co., for the construction of the Railway, and stations, rolling stock, &c., and for building wharves and warehouses at the port of Campana, together with the machinery and appliances requisite for rapidly loading and discharging vessels, and warehousing goods and merchandise, in accordance with the plans and specifications, and to the satisfaction of the Company's engineers, and for maintaining the line for one year after it is completed and opened for public traffic, for the sum of £790,000.

"The contract also provides for the payment of interest at seven per cent per annum on the entire capital of the company during the construction of the railway. The contractors have also evinced their confidence in the rapid development of the traffic by guaranteeing a net minimum dividend of seven per cent. for the first year, and — per cent. for the second year after the line is opened for traffic, on the shares now offered for subscription.

"The directors have concluded a very satisfactory arrangement with Mr. Neville B. Mortimer, C.E., for superintending the works as chief resident engineer of the company, and to assume the position of general manager as soon as the line is completed and opened to public traffic. Mr. Mortimer's long and valuable experience in the construction and working of railways in the Argentine Republic, and his personal influence, will be eminently serviceable to the company, and will assure for it a competent and energetic administration in Buenos Ayres.

"The construction of the railway was duly commenced, and on the 11th October, 1872, the works were officially inaugurated by his Excellency Don Velez Sarsfield, Home Minister in the Argentine Government; the ceremony being attended by the principal Ministers of the National and Provincial Governments. Nearly the whole of the permanent way materials, including rails, iron sleepers, bridges etc., have been shipped, and the operations are being pushed forward with the view to completing the line at the earliest possible date.

"The capital of the company consists of £500,000 in shares, and £400,000 in debenture stock; it being intended to apply the net revenue of £28,000 per annum, guaranteed by the Argentine Government for twenty years from the opening of the railway, to the payment of the interest on the latter."

It is the opinion of some very experienced men that the late very heavy losses in the camp are more attributable to the overstocking of the land than anything else. On many of the sheep-farms in the more favoured partidos, from thirty to fifty thousand sheep was the number allowed for a square league of good land, and besides this immense stock of sheep a 'rodeo' of cattle, horses and mares. Of course it is not surprising that land so heavily stocked at last gave way, indeed it is a wonder that the estancia lands have held out so long, and it is more than probable that this is the last year we shall ever witness such an epidemia in the camp, for all farmers, now, who own land will see the immense advantage of fencing their property. Five years from now there will not be an open unfenced estancia from Buenos Ayres to Dolores, Chivilcoy, and San Pedro.

Many farmers owing to the present state of things in the camp were compelled to overstock their lands in order to keep the neighbour's flocks from eating their pasturage. All now suffer in the general loss both neighbours and owners; the land cannot support the stock, and the carcasses of millions of sheep and cattle spread over the camp teach a severe lesson. Another very important subject for consideration is the sweeping change which the fencing of lands will effect upon camp manners and customs, the lonely isolated 'puesto' will be unnecessary, 'puesteros' can live more together and life will be more protected, we shall hear of less camp outrages and assassinations, and this itself is sufficient to justify the great expense of fencing all the estancia lands in the country. Every man who has property out in the camp must see that the present state of things cannot last, and the only remedy possible is the one we point out; yesterday 25,000 hides that came in from two estancias were sold in one lot and to one buyer in the South market. We can judge therefore of the severity of the losses in horned cattle by this single sale. Some of the principal native estancieros are of opinion that a third of the cattle of the country has died in the present epidemia, but it is all guess-work, since the administration is too slovenly to secure statistics. In other countries, perhaps with far less pretentions than this, the loss would be known even to a dead cow, here we grope in the dark about millions.

The agents of Buenos Ayres houses in Montevideo cannot be too careful in divulging to their friends down there the news received by telegram from Rio for houses here, as it appears a case occurred the other day where the contents of a message from Europe to a German house in this market were telegraphed up the very same day by Mr Buola to the Bolsa here. The telegraph officers, of course, have no share of blame, since they are obliged to send up the messages they receive; and the party responsible is the house in Montevideo that receives the telegram from Rio. It is probable, however, that this week communication will be through from Buenos Ayres to Rio, which will remove the possibility of European messages being read in Montevideo before they are received here. Merchants must also be on their guard that there is a great sameness in the messages received, for, with the single exception of the stock of wool in Antwerp, Messrs. Bonnemason and Co. received the same identical market news per telegram brought down by the La France.

To-day the treasury of the Mortgage Bank was crowded by parties paying up the interest on their mortgages, and it it easy to see on a day like this the great increase in the business of the bank.

It may interest some parties to know that the end of the broken cable which was successfully picked up off Madeira was brought up from a depth of 2000 fathoms, or say two miles and a quarter.

SONG.

AIR—"Fine old English Gentleman"

I'll tell to you a little tale,
That occurred long time ago,
About a little sailor man
And a pointer dog, called "Joe:"
This sailor liked his 'tot,'
And the dog was just the same;
So, whenever "Jack" went on the spree,
To join him he was game,
Like a fine old English pointer dog,
one of the real old sort

For many a year they caroused, then,
On land and on the shore,
'Till they could "spree" no longer,
For poor Jack he was no more,
But the dog would not contented be,
On land or on the sea,
Unless he could drink, poor Jack's health,
In OTARD and DUPUY—
Like a fine old English pointer
one of the real old sort.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND CO.
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense auvantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maná & Co. of this city, following he noble example of their firm in Montevideo, for the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mana & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uninformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of

Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head,
Syphilis, or Veneral Disease,
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptions
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever, & Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the constitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilla must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly hasted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbilic or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to mal fnuctional operations.

HABIENDO ocurrido al Exmo. Gobierno de la Provincia en M yo del año ppdo., solicitando, para los objetos que corresponden a mi derecho, vista de un Espediente que quedo archivado en 1852 en la Escribania Mayor de Gobierno, cuestionando la propiedad de la casa Calle de Suipacha num. 8, se me concedio; resultando sin embargo, segun certifica la Escribania, no hallarse alli dichos autos.

En su virtud, estando se haciendo hoy unas obras apuntement importantes, en dicha finca, y no mediando sobre el asunto principal, en todo el tiempo que ha pasado hasta la fecha, ningun arreglo o pago, ni cosa que i fiera mi conformidad con la posesion actual, bajo las circonstancias creo mi deber hacer conocer en general las siguientes protestas—

Acta—Juzgado de Paz de San Miguel—Viva la Confederacion Argentina.

Compareció en este Juzgado de Paz, por citacion que se le hizo, D. Juan B. Kiernan, quien posee una casa, Calle de Suipacha num. 8, perteneciente a la familia del finado D. Lucas Gonzalez, a quien le hizo saber haberse presentado con poderes amplios el Sr. D. Francisco de la Serna, reclamandola a nombre de la dicha familia del finado Gonzalez, y habiendole leido el Superior Decreto del 12 de Marzo del presente año, en que consideraba este Juzgado comprendida dicha finca, y haberle dado 40 dias para su desalojo, contesto: "Que la casa Calle de Suipacha num. 8 le pertenece en la mas legal e incontrovertible propiedad, por haberla comprado judicialmente, con todas las solemnidades y requisiciones de ley," como demuestran las escrituras que exhibio de fecha 23 de Junio de 1846, otorgadas por el ex-Juez de 1ª Instancia, Dr. D. Manuel Mansilla; "que en esta virtud no se creia no podia creerse absolutamente comprendido en los efectos del Superior Decreto citado, sino por el contrario sostenia tener toda justicia para ser amparado en sus derechos por las autoridades del pais y mantenido en quieta posesion de la finca cuyo desalojo y entrega violentamente se le ordenaba—que por todas estas consideraciones dicha intimacion la reputaba altamente atentoria e ilegal; en cuya virtud (con el debido espeto) manifestaba su resistencia a llenarla, y protestaba con todo fuerza y en todo forma contra ella, y de reclamar oportunamente donde mejor corresponderse contra quien o quienes hubiera lugar por derecho y mas le conviniere por los daños, menoscabos y perjuicios que se le irrogaban;" concluyendo con pedir copia de esta acta para defensa de sus derechos, y firmo.

Buenos Aires, Abril 1°, 1852.
JUAN B. KIERNAN.
JOSE MARIA POSSE,
Juez de Paz.

Otra protesta, igual en su fondo, y referente a la misma casa y su contenido, formulo en el Consulado Britanico el 16 de Octubre de 1862, por haber resue to el Gobierno Provisional de la epoca su entrega, posesionandose de ella por medio de la fuerza, rechazando para esto la intervencion y tramitacion natural del asunto por los Tribunales competente.

El penultimo parrafo de la citada es como sigue—

"Por las presentes certifico que copia autorizada de la antecedente protesta ha sido trasmitida por mi, en una nota oficial, a S. E. el Minitro de Gobierno de la Provincia de Buenos Ayres, a pedimiento de dicho Juan B. Kiernan.

Consulado Britanico, Octubre 22 de 1862.

Max Havelaar.
BY MULTATULI.

It is difficult to say whether Max Havelaar is more interesting as a novel or powerful as a political pamphlet. From either point of view it is of rare and first rate excellence. In its life-like actuality it constantly recalls Defoe, while in its tender and original humor it suggests Sterne in his best moods.—"Westminister Review," April, 1868,

* * * That is the whole story. A book which combines more humor, knowledge of character, high thought, deep passion, and vigorous political intelligence than any we have read for a long time.—"Evening Star," Feb. 14, 1868.

The story is remarkably clever, a rollicking, eccentric, grotesque and satirical humor overflowing on every page. It is unlike any other book that we have read * * * Some of the episodes; that of Saidjah, for instance, are manifest creations of an imaginative genius of no ordinary kind.—"British Quarterly Review," April, 1868.

It is a novel in form, but in reality a political pamphlet, The revelations contained in it startled the country, and have ever since formed the ground for contention in the Legislature. Although Max Havelaar may seem less attractive to many who read nothing but novels than the morbid and silly stories which are in demand at circulating libraries, yet by other and more judicious readers it will be heartily welcomed.—"Daily News," Feb. 19, 1868.

A more stinging satire of the lower propensities of the Dutch could hardly be conceived than that embodied in the Amsterdam coffee broker, Batavus Drystubbie, (who) stands out as one of the most remarkable embodiments of money grubbing Pharisaism which litrature has yet produced,

Thackeray himself could not have surpassed this scathing page ("God so directs all things that orthodoxy leads to wealth," etc.). It is immortal, come what may to the book that contains it.—"Contemporary Review," April, 1868.
